Market context

This is an older or classic boat. Market values for this age group tend to vary more depending on condition and maintenance. With only 100 engine hours, this boat may compare favourably with many boats of a similar age. Prices for similar boats vary significantly, indicating a less consistent market where condition and equipment play a major role.

Methodology

This report is based on advertised listings of similar boats currently available across Europe and the UK.

Comparable boats are selected based on size, type, age, and key characteristics to reflect current market conditions.

Market Confidence

Confidence level: High

Based on 15 comparable boats, with a high proportion of strong matches and a relatively consistent price range.
